Our plans for the future...

Zion Garden Park Agricultural Assistance Program

CDSN worked with community partners to complete a community demonstration garden project designed to provide urban agriculture technical assistance. This project addresses natural resource conservation at the community level and enable community members to successfully grow produce. The project will expose citizens to effective techniques that they can use to accomplish backyard conservation, establish healthy soils, plant crops, compost, integrate pest management, grow organically, and properly irrigate. It will also address soil quality, critical water management, storm water pollution prevention, landfill diversion, renewable energy, food waste, and wildlife habitats. This is being performed in a low-income, low-access food desert with the highest food insecurity rate in Southern Nevada. This program has been funded by the National Association of Conservation Districts (NACD) with additional support from the following core partners: University of Nevada Cooperative Extension, Zion United Methodist Church, Nevada Division of Environmental Protection, Terra Firma Organics, State Renewable Energy, Green Chips (ImpactNV), and the Natural Resources Conservation Service.

Sustainability Partnership Program—We have updated this program, which certifies and actively promotes the sustainability efforts of business and organization partners. The process has been made simpler and less expensive for participants to encourage partners of all sizes to initiate or expand their sustainability efforts. Our goal is to expand the membership and thereby increase overall benefits to the community. The Program was launched on September 13th, 2016 with community partners including but not limited to Green Chips (Impact NV), Southwest Gas, Republic Services, and RTCSN.

Southern Nevada Strong—CDSN has transitioned its work on this critically important regional planning program supported by HUD. CDSN is continuing to leverage its informed perspective and sustainability expertise to support and assist the RTCSN to implement the approved plan.

Christmas Tree Recycling Program— Each year Southern Nevada along with various community partners come together to recycle used trees into useful mulch. Last season citizens helped keep thousands of trees out of the local landfill! This effort, led by UNLV Recycling and The Nevada Division of Environmental Protection (NDEP), gets better each year.

Pitch-A-Pumpkin - CDSN is an integral part of The Southern Nevada Christmas Tree Recycling Committee. The committee encourages the community to be mindful about recycling holiday organics. The Committee has solely focused on recycling Christmas Trees since the 1990's, and in 2016 decided to add recycling pumpkins to the program. The event happens during the first weekend after Halloween and involves launching pumpkins with trebuchets approximately 100 feet into a container donated by Republic Services in the Silverton Hotel and Casino parking lot. Afterwards, the container is hauled to a local composter, Terra Firma Organics, to be composted into soil that is used throughout the Las Vegas Valley. In 2017, the committee was able to save 32 tons of pumpkins from entering the landfill and hopes to increase that amount.

Awards & Recognition – CDSN continues to be recognized via awards and National articles (NACD & USDA). In 2015, we were named NvACD Outstanding Conservation District for our outreach programs and efforts. This has continued as we've earned the following: 2017 Greenfest Transformers award, Green Chips 2017 Sustainable Community Project award.
